of subjects and emphasizing light and shadow, she has recently been exploring the pristine beauty of ocean waves.

Lynda Campbell loves the immediate results that painting with pastels allows so she's stayed with them for 25 years. Her inspirations are often nature related, such as a detailed close-up of tree roots or rocks or a sweeping sea or landscape.

Mary Ann Gantenbein enjoys experimenting with watercolor, pastels and acrylics - and mixing them together. A member of the Pastel group at TEAA, she also belongs to the Palette Puddlers in Cannon Beach.

Linda Campbell, Reflective Pastel

Pat Lawrence fell in love with pastels because of their pure vivid colors and easy transport. She loves creating water scenes, the light of dawn and sunset skies.

Kathy Moberg has been painting for over 50 years with her preferred mediums being pastel and watercolor. She creates from her experiences both personal as well as cultural/current events.

Linda Wyss discovered pastels several years ago and has been mastering the techniques to capture the quality of light and nuances of color in landscapes and sense of movement in seascapes.

We have a few changes in the Membership Directory, so when you receive your latest copy from TEAA, be sure to check it for corrections, and keep a copy handy for TEAA activities!

Notes from the Prez...

"April is a promise that May is bound to keep."

Hal Borland, American Author and Journalist

Hello everyone! Wishing you more sunshine than showers as we enter into Spring, the season of renewal. I was so pleased to see many of you at our March Quarterly Meeting, including several members who joined us on Zoom. We shared lots of new and exciting information, and enjoyed an excellent presentation by Sherise Smith, VP of Operations, about her father, renowned artist Mick Reber. If you were unable to attend, please read the minutes and watch the newsletter monthly for more updates.

One of the timelier announcements was regarding the several new workshops available. They are all on our website and you can register there too. Be sure to check them out and make your choices soon as attendance is limited to 12 people for each session.

Another reminder; it's time to shake off the winter lethargy and stir those creative juices. Our annual Judged Show is only four months away! Dust off your paints, I want to see a brand new masterpiece from each of you!

75th Anniversary Events

July 5th Star Spangled Art Walk

Our first 75th Anniversary celebration this year is July ArtWalk! Chair, Phyllis Taylor, is actively working on getting desserts, music and possible art demos. There may be raffled desserts and/or baskets. Please contact Phyllis if you are available to help that day. Stay tuned for more details as we get closer to the date.

Around the World Wine and Cheese Event!

You might have heard about a wine and cheese event being held at the gallery Sept. 20, this is TRUE. We are excited to bring this event back again!

The tickets will go fast and are limited and will be on sale approximately six weeks prior to the event - so mark your calendars!

Free Little Art Gallery

Mark your calendars! The TEAA Free Little Art Gallery (FLAG) is planning a grand opening celebration for ArtWalk June 7!

A FLAG is like a Little Library, but instead of books, it's a place for the community to share small works of art with each other. TEAA's has a component so children (or adults) can create a piece of art there at the FLAG to leave, exchange, take, or just enjoy viewing art.

Linda Wyss and Tj Lev received a Thrivent grant for $250 to help with building costs, yay! (Thank you Linda) Tj will be the lead to keep the FLAG stocked with art supplies. The TEAA FLAG purpose is to encourage the artist in everyone, with a focus on the next generation of artists, which is in line with our mission! How can you be involved? Members will have the opportunity to add/donate small works of art or donate art supplies. Much more information to come! Questions? Contact Tj Lev.
